1757 Mexico "Hand on Book" 8-Escudo NGC Mint

State 61 — A standout piece from the twilight of Mexico's colonial-style gold coinage, this 1857 8 Escudo was struck at the Culiacan Mint (CE mintmark) and represents a remarkable combination of historical symbolism and mint state preservation. Certified by NGC as MS61, this coin offers exceptional eye appeal and crisp detail for a gold issue of its era. Just eight exist in total, with only 1 finer!

Only one for $6,000.

1783 Mexico 8 Reale Shipwreck El Cazador Genuine

This extraordinary 1783 Mexico MO FF 8 Reale coin is a genuine artifact from the fabled shipwreck of El Cazador. Minted during the reign of King Charles III at the Mexico City Mint, this coin carries not only historical significance but also intricate artistry. NGC has certified this coin, Genuine, as a shipwreck artifact from El Cazador.

Only one available for $450.

Lysimachus Drachm Mint State — Like the Alexander Drachm shown below, we love the history and immense rarity in these 2,300 year old Macedonian treasures, particularly in this high of a condition. Lysimachus, one of Alexander the Great's trusted generals and later ruler of Thrace, Asia Minor, and Macedon. Amazingly, only 690 are certified with this one of 18 in Mint State with NONE FINER! Blast white and spectacular—an amazing coin for the price.

TOP RARE & ANCIENT COIN SELECTIONS

Find below a list of some of our favorite inventory selections

Philip II Gold Stater Choice Extremely Fine — This exceptional Gold Stater of Philip II of Macedon struck during his lifetime or shortly after his death (359-336 BC), is a rare and historically significant artifact from one of the most powerful rulers of the ancient world. Struck from the vast wealth acquired through Macedon's gold mines, these staters played a crucial role in funding Philip's military campaigns—ultimately laying the foundation for his son Alexander the Great's conquests.

Only one for $6,900.

1891 Zacatecas, Mexico 10 Pesos Mint State-64 – This 1891 Mexico 10 Pesos, struck in .875 fine gold, stands out for its rare and symbolic reverse design. Graded Mint State 64 by NGC, it exhibits vibrant luster, sharp detail, and excellent surface preservation—making it one of the finest examples known from the Zacatecas Mint. In fact, only 14 examples have ever been certified from a low mintage of 1,930 coins—and just one is finer than the current example.

Available for $7,150.

1844-Dahlonga $5 Liberty Gold About Uncirc. 58 — The 1844-D $5 Liberty Gold Half Eagle, certified by NGC in About Uncirculated 58, is a noteworthy piece of American numismatic history. Minted at the Dahlonga Mint in Georgia, this coin reflects the early days of gold coinage in the United States, particularly in the Southern mints, which have always held a unique allure for collectors. The 1844-D Half Eagle has a relatively low mintage of only 88,982 coins, contributing to its rarity and desirability among collectors. Today under 600 are known in all grades with this stunning AU58 being one of 64 in the grade with just 42 known finer.

Only one for $8,950.

1852 $20 Gold Liberty SSCA Shipwreck About Uncirculated-55 — This lightly circulated 1852 Double Eagle from the Philadelphia Mint was recovered from the legendary SS Central America, which sank in a hurricane in 1857. Certified by PCGS in AU-55, it spent nearly 140 years on the ocean floor. Remarkably, it still retains strong mint luster and sharp detail—an incredible survivor with fabulous eye appeal. A standout piece for any world-class collection. Only one for $11,900.
