Roman Republic Silver Victoriatus Mint State –Here we have a stunning and frosty mint state silver “Victoriatus”, issued from 211–208 B.C. depicting a lifelike portrait of Jupiter on the obverse and a procession of victory on the back. Certified in mint state condition by NGC, these are great coins for the price and very beautiful. Coin shown may not be the exact coin you receive, but indicative of the quality you can expect. Available for \$795.

1897-S $20 Liberty Gold Mint State-63 – We absolutely love the current value that can be found in $20 Liberty Gold Coins from the late 1800s and early 1900s. We particularly look for years that offer a combination of low mintages and low survival rates that trade for a very small premium in price to common dates like the 1904 - what we call a “Better-Date”. Call for other $20 Liberty dates like this one. Supplies are limited at \$2,990/coin.

Phoenicia Silver Quarter Shekel Choice Very Fine 5x3
The Phoenicia, Sidon ABD Astart I AR Quarter-Shekel, minted between 356-352 BC, stands as an extraordinary relic from the ancient Phoenician city of Sidon.
